

DOG CREEK LODGE

NOW HIRING

Restaurant/Bar

- Want to have the opportunity to design your own menu items, work in a beautiful setting out of town, and use local onsite ingredients?

Dog Creek Lodge is a year - round resort that just added a full commercial kitchen and bar in Olney, Montana. We have our own greenhouse in which we grow a lot of our own vegetables, greens and herbs. We are looking for a head chef to lead our expanding restaurant, someone who wants to build on their experience and bring their creativity to the kitchen with the capacity to lead our team.

Hours: We're looking for someone who can work weekends and a flexible weekday schedule including afternoons and evenings, Thursday through Sunday to start.

This position will be part to full-time, depending on events, bookings and traffic.

Benefits: Work in our newly renovated kitchen with a brand new flattop and grill; have the chance to develop your own recipes from local, on-site ingredients; flexible schedule; year-round work with time off in the shoulder seasons for competitive pay, depending on experience.

Job/Responsibilities: We are looking for a Head Chef, someone with exceptional kitchen experience and professional taste. Candidates must have:

- good cleaning habits
- knowledge of culinary techniques
- food preparation, and rationing experience
- the ability to work with staff on ordering, maintaining inventory
- the ability to lead/mentor kitchen staff
- punctuality & good communication skills

We have our very own wood-fire pizza oven and an established pizza menu that will be incorporated into the new menu which you must be willing to learn.

Interested candidates, please contact Brett Svetlik at 406-239-0858 or Sarah Cadenhead at 406-261-2787. You can email us your resume at dogcreeklodgemt@gmail.com.

NOW HIRING

Housekeeping

- Are you neat, punctual and dedicated? Do you strive for showcasing that first experience?

Dog Creek Lodge is a year - round resort that is looking for the right individual to lead our housekeeping team and a variety of duties that come with it. If you are looking to work out of town in a beautiful setting, helping showcase what Montana, our lodge and surrounding property has to offer, please reach out!

Hours: We're looking for someone who is willing to plan ahead with our schedule and make sure our housekeeping staff is informed and prepared for the schedule too. We normally have our schedule booked over 6 months in advance, so the right candidate will be prepared well in advance.

Our housekeeping supervisor will be working part to full-time with time off in the shoulder seasons and will have a flexible schedule depending on reservations. The primary work times will be between check outs/ins from 11:00AM to 4:00pm varying days of the week depending on the bookings.

Benefits: Work in a gorgeous out of town location with a fun and friendly staff. Flipping the resort isn't an easy task, but the rest of the schedule can be sculpted to make it work for you. Learn all the ins and outs of the lodge operations and have the ability to work in other areas of the lodge like the restaurant, grounds and reservations, enjoy time off in the shoulder seasons and work for competitive pay.

Job/Responsibilities: We are looking for someone who can wear a variety of hats and can lead the housekeeping staff in keeping our resort fun, safe and clean for our guests, making their experience memorable.

- Oversee housekeeping staff, help with general cleaning of property/rooms/and outdoor spaces
- Monitor guest arrivals and departures to schedule staff
- Order cleaning products/ sheets and towels as needed working alongside management & restaurant
- Help with daily/weekly laundry responsibilities
- Outdoor furniture and gardening upkeep
- Deep cleans in restaurant and lodge buildings when needed
